

Debi Flynn
Marketing Director

Debi has been involved in Dublin's real estate market for over 20 years and focuses on corporate and international relocations. She is passionate about her city, which she knows inside out...and is the "go to" person for millennials relocating to Dublin.

Debi is a Licensed Real Estate Agent in Ireland. She also has a boutique property development business, investing and developing residential units in prime Dublin areas. Debi attended National University of Ireland, Maynooth, where she studied English and History and is a recent Graduate of DIT, in Property Economics.