

Jonathan Pascall
Development Consultant

Having worked in the construction industry for over 12 years, and with Buro Four since 2005, Jonathan holds an excellent track record in development and project management of large scale residential, commercial and Higher Education projects with client's such as The Crown Estate, Derwent London, University of Southampton and the British Film Institute.

Jonathan has a BSc in Construction Management from Oxford Brookes University and is a Trustee for Buro Four's Employee Benefit Trust. Jonathan has also served alongside Anil Khera on Project Light House, project managing the design competition and feasibility study for church based community centre in London.